SUBJECT: Regarding the treatment to be given to the candidates belonging to the Other Backward Classes / Scheduled Castes / Scheduled Tribes who are selected against general category vacancies on the basis of their merit.

There are several occasions when the candidates belonging to the Other Backward Classes / Scheduled Castes / Scheduled Tribes get selected against general category vacancies on the basis of their merit without availing any of the special concessions which are available to the candidates belonging to these categories. Doubts have been expressed as to how such candidates are to be treated. The matter has been examined in consultation with the Law Department and the position in this regard is clarified as follows :-

- (a) If a candidate belonging to OBC/SC/ST has not availed of any of the special concessions which are available to the candidates belonging to these categories, except the concession of fees, and he secures more marks than the marks obtained by the last general category candidate who is selected, such a candidate belonging to the OBC/SC/ST shall be counted against the general category vacancies and not the vacancies reserved for the OBC/SC/ST, as the case may be.

If any SC/ST candidate gets selected against the general category vacancies on the basis of his merit without availing of any of the special concessions which are available to the candidates belonging to these categories, except the concession of fees, such a SC/ST candidate will be treated as a SC/ST candidate, as the case may be, for all further service matters, including further promotions, and all the benefits which are admissible to the other SC/ST persons under the various service rules/government instructions shall be admissible to them.

- (c) The OBC/SC/ST category candidates who get selected against general category vacancies on the basis of their merit will not be counted against the posts reserved for these categories when it comes to the question of determining the total number of posts occupied by the candidates of these categories in that particular post/cadre.

These instructions may be brought to the notice of all concerned for ensuring strict compliance thereof.
