JPD/Rules-1374

NO. JPD/CAO(IA)/AO(Rules)/F. 202 /D.5751 dated March 03, 2021

ORDER

It has been observed that while procuring goods, services and works, the provisions of Rule No. 73 of the RTPP Rules 2013 are not being complied with in toto. The procurement entities after having made/avail procurement/services are seeking ex-post facto sanction from competent procurement authority/committee, for procurement of additional quantities and/or extra items, which is in defiance of the Rule No.73 ibid.

In view of the stipulations under Rule No. 73 of the RTPP Rules 2013, it is further directed that procurement of additional quantities and /or extra items be made only after ensuring the following key conditions:

1. For additional procurement of works, the ceiling for individual items shall be 50% of the ordered quantity subject to 50% of the original contract value; in case of goods and services this shall be 50% of the original contract value;
2. The ceiling for extra item(s) shall be 5% of the original contract value;
3. The provision to the above effect should be specified in the bidding documents;
4. Before placing the order for additional quantity or extra items, the procuring entity shall obtain prior approval for the revised requirements/procurement from the competent authority for reasons to be recorded in writing. Wherever necessary due to the quantum of orders for additional quantities/extra items, the procuring entity shall obtain prior and revised technical financial and administrative approvals from the competent authorities.
5. The limit of 50% of the value of original contract shall not be exceeded in any case.

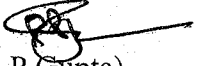

Hence, all concerned are advised to ensure the compliance of Rule No. 73 of the RTPP Rules 2013 while taking procurement action for additional quantities and/or extra items, failing which any fallout shall be at their personal risk and cost.
