Order

Sub :- Removal of anomaly of pay between directly recruited senior and junior employee due to further revision of pay scale of the post.

The Finance Department, GoR issued an order No. F.14(88) FD/Rules/2008 dated 28.05.2021 (copy enclosed). It has been brought to the notice of the Government that pay anomaly has been arisen between senior and junior employees of the holders of some posts. A senior Government servant was appointed before the further revision of the pay scale of the post and junior Government servant was appointed in the further revision of pay scale of the post. In some cases further revision of pay scale was made w.e.f. 01.07.2013.

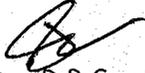

Similar cases may exist in the Nigam also, where, the pay of junior Nigam employee on completion of period of probation has been made in accordance with the entry pay prescribed in the revised Annexure-G appended with the order No. JPD/Rules-1143 and pay of senior Nigam employee has been fixed at an equal stage in the running pay band plus revised grade pay of the post as per provisions of rule 28 of Annexure.-A appended with order No. 1612 dated 01.10.2008 (JPD/Rules-499). The pay of senior Nigam employee remains lower than the entry pay allowed to the junior Nigam employee. This has resulted anomaly in pay from the date junior has been allowed entry pay of the post of further revised pay scale.

Accordingly, in exercise of powers conferred vide order No. JPD/CAO(IA)/AO/Rules/F.90/D.3203 dated 20.01.2014 the Managing Director is pleased to adopt the Finance Department, GoR's order No. F.14(88) FD/Rules/2008 dated 28.05.2021 and order that in the cases of direct recruitment, due to further revision of pay scale from the date subsequent to 01.01.2006, the pay of senior becomes lower than his junior , in such cases the pay of senior Nigam employee may be allowed to be stepped up equal to the pay of his junior from the date junior began to draw higher pay. In such cases, the date of next increment of senior Nigam employee will be the date of next increment admissible to the junior Nigam employees.

This order will be effective from 01.07.2013.

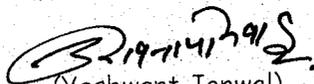

By order,

(Dr. R.P. Gupta)

No. F. 14(88)FD/Rules/2008

Jaipur Dated : 28 MAY 2021

ORDER

Subject : Removal of anomaly in pay between directly recruited senior and junior Government servant due to further revision of pay scale of the post.

It has been brought to the notice of the Government that pay anomaly has been arisen between senior and junior employees of the holders of some posts. A senior Government servant was appointed before the further revision of the pay scale of the post and junior Government was appointed in the further revision of pay scale of the post. In some cases further revision of pay scale was made w.e.f. 01.07.2013.

The pay of junior Government servant on completion of period of probation has been made in accordance with the entry pay prescribed in the revised Schedule-V appended to the RCS(Revised pay) Rules, 2008 and pay of senior Government servant has been fixed at an equal stage in the running pay band plus revised grade pay of the post as per provisions of rule, 28 of RCS(RP) Rules, 2008. The pay of senior Government servant remains lower than the entry pay allowed to the junior Government servant. This has resulted anomaly in pay from the date junior has been allowed entry pay of the post of further revised pay scale.

Accordingly, the matter has been considered and the Governor is pleased to order that in the cases of direct recruitment, due to further revision of pay scale from the date subsequent to 01.01.2006, the pay of senior becomes lower than his junior, in such cases the pay of senior Government servant may be allowed to be stepped up equal to the pay of his junior from the date junior began to draw higher pay. In such cases the date of next increment of senior Government servant will be the date of next increment admissible to the junior Government servant.

This order will be effective from 01.07.2013
