ORDER

Sub:- Withholding of salary of sub-divisional officers.

It has been observed that the controlling officers frequently withhold the salary of sub-divisional officers on account of non submission of desired informations/reports etc. or non compliance of the directions of controlling officers by them within the specified period. Such sub-divisional officers consequently represent to corporate office through their controlling officers for release of their withheld salary. In absence of receipt of complete informations from the controlling officers regarding withheld salaries of sub-divisional officers, it becomes difficult to take any view in such cases.

In order to avoid above situation, it is enjoined upon all the concerned officers that henceforth, the salary of AENs & above will be withheld only with the prior approval of the CMD.
